Summary of Legislation: This bill amends the definition of "alcoholic beverage salesman" to exempt an Internet based consumer marketing service that promotes alcoholic beverage sales, other than beer sales, only through licensed Indiana wholesalers, dealers, and retailers.

The bill removes a provision that allows a wine wholesaler to sell and deliver wine to a consumer's residence in permissible containers that do not exceed 50 gallons at any one time.

The bill allows a liquor dealer to deliver an unlimited quantity of liquor to a customer's residence or office. (Current law limits the quantity a liquor dealer may deliver to a customer's residence or office to 12 quarts at any one time.)

The bill allows a wine dealer to sell an unlimited quantity of wine. (Current law limits the quantity that a wine dealer may sell to not more than 12 quarts at any one time.)

The bill also allows a wine dealer that holds a liquor permit to sell and deliver wine in permissible containers to a customer's residence or office.

Effective Date: July 1, 2001.
